

International Death Penalty Abolition Day Write-a-Thon

YOU!

Your State Representatives
Your State Senator
Your Governor

Join the Tennessee Coalition to Abolish State Killing and anti-death penalty advocates across the state of Tennessee in a coordinated letter writing effort. March 1st is the anniversary of Michigan's abolition of the death penalty in 1847. Be a part of this historic day and let your elected officials know why Tennessee does not need the death penalty.

It does not take long to write these letters and there are many locations and times available to drop by!
